

If patient's result is unknown or patient did not have testing done, consider rescheduling C-section, depending on medical indication, in order to provide proper amount of time for COVID-PCR rather than rapid test.

Testing period can be extended to 96 hours if outpatient services are not available