Appendix 4 Algorithm for Substance Abuse Screening in Pregnancy

Declines Screening, or Negative Screening, but Presence of Neonatal Complications Associated with Substance Use (Positive NAS Scoring, Anomalies Suggestive of Drug or Alcohol Exposure, Vascular Accidents, MI, NEC at Term): Perform Maternal and Neonatal Biochemical Screening and Start/Continue NAS Scoring.

reviewed: 5/8/2018

Gratefully reproduced with permission from Northern New England Perinatal Quality Improvement Network http://www.nnepqin.org/a-toolkit-for-the-perinatal-care-of-women-with-opioid-use-disorders/

^{*}Antenatal Risk Factors: No or Inadequate Prenatal Care, Exhibited Signs and Symptoms of Drug and/or Alcohol Use or Withdrawal, Drug Seeking Behavior, Repeated Use of Prescription Narcotics, Personal History of Domestic Violence, Incarceration, or Previous DCF/DCYF Referral, Hepatitis B/C, HIV-Positive Status, or Active STD's, Unexplained Preterm Labor. Placenta Abruption, IUGR, Hypertension.